Edgar Allan Poe

(1809-1849)

Edgar Allan Poe's life

- his parents were actors, both died when he was two years old
-  adopted by a rich Allan family – good relationship with his step mother but not with his step father – very strict to him
- he got good education X problems at university in Charlottesville – bad behaviour, hazardous games, debts, drinking  sent down

- his step father sent him to the West Point military academy X Poe had problems with respect towards authorities, obeying and following rules  excluded again
- married his young cousin Virginia X she died in 1847
-  Poe started to suffer from depressions and drink more than ever
- found unconscious in the street, transported to hospital – he died there 2 years after his wife's death
- only 4 people came to his funeral

Poe's literary work

- he lived in poverty  became a journalist – he wrote articles, short stories and poems for newspapers to earn for his living
- abandoned, misunderstood for many years – “discovered” by French symbolists - Ch.Baudelaire

SHORT STORIES:

- E.A.Poe = a master of mystery, suspense – he plays with his readers, manipulates them to create the strongest possible effect of terror
- he is a founder of modern horror and detective stories – inspired by Gothic novels – set to old gloomy castles, cellars, dark cells
- a motif of madness, mental health – a good psychologist

The Pit and the Pendulum

- a terrifying story of a victim of the Spanish Inquisition – mental torture described in detail

The Fall of the House of Usher

- a cursed family of Roderick Usher living in a haunted house
- unknown evil revealed in the end – nothing supernatural – the only evil is caused by Roderick himself

The Black Cat

- a motif of murderer and madness
- = a symbol of justice, punishment

The Mask of the Red Death

- = a symbol of plague
- gloomy atmosphere of a locked castle – no escape possible

Murders in the Rue Morgue

- a character of detective Dupin = inspiration for Doyle's Sherlock Holmes – brilliant, cool logic

POETRY:

The Raven

- = a romantic ballad
- = a symbol of death – ultimate, unchangable, eternal
- the loss of a beloved woman and finally a loss of hope  constant repetition of the Raven's "Never more"
