OXFORD

- A. Oxford is the most popular tourist attraction in Britain, after London and Stratford-upon-Avon. Oxford is famous for its university, which is the oldest in Britain and the third oldest in Europe.
- B. The university has thirty-five separate colleges. For many years, only five of these colleges were for women. However, since 1979 nearly all the colleges have accepted both men and women.
- C. Oxford is not only a university city, it is also a market town, where ordinary people live and work. With over one million visitors a year, it is very difficult nowadays for the residents of Oxford to live their daily lives. Sometimes they feel that the city does not belong to them. And what do they say about their home town?
- D. _____
- “Oxford is a great place to be as a student but sometimes you feel as if you are in a goldfish bowl. Everybody wants to see what Oxford students look like and how they live!”
- E. _____
- “I’m having a great time here. There are parties every night if you want to go to them. The trouble is, I’m working on night duty at the Radcliffe hospital at the moment!”
- F. _____
- “I like Oxford. There is so much history here. The buildings and the river are beautiful. There is everything here – good shops, restaurants and cinemas. In fact, I think Oxford is more fun than London, almost like Sao Paulo. ”
